

Rating Scale for Evaluation of Clinical Performance

Rating Scale	Standards	Description/Quality of Performance
Independent: 3 points	Safe and accurate	<ul style="list-style-type: none">  Proficient, coordinated, and competent  Effectively and efficiently coordinates patient care activities  Requires minimal directive cues from instructor  Maintains patient safety  Applies knowledge base accurately with minimal assistance  Consistently demonstrates professional behaviors
Supervised: 2 points	Safe and accurate	<ul style="list-style-type: none">  Competent, coordinated, and confident  Performs patient care activities  Requires directive or supportive cues from instructor  Maintains patient safety  Applies knowledge base with some assistance  Consistently demonstrates professional behaviors
Assisted: 1 point	Unsafe or inaccurate	<ul style="list-style-type: none">  Inefficient, uncoordinated  Minimal competence and confidence  Requires frequent and supportive cues from instructor  Performs safety and accurately with assistance  Minimal knowledge base  Identifies principles and needs direction to apply  Inconsistently demonstrates professional behaviors
Dependent: 0 point	Unsafe and inaccurate	<ul style="list-style-type: none">  Lacks competency, confidence, coordination, and efficiency  Nonproductive and disorganized with patient care  Requires continuous directive and supportive cues from instructor  Unable to demonstrate procedure and behavior, even if prompted  Only performs safely with almost continuous assistance  Minimal knowledge base, needs continuous assistance to apply  Unable to identify principles; unable to repeat previously achieved behaviors/skills  Demonstrates unprofessional behaviors