

No matter what obstacles may be in your path
we can put you on the road to success!

Building new career opportunities.

Workforce Solutions of Central Texas' programming offers opportunities for career advancement by providing quality employment and training services to assist eligible individuals in finding and qualifying for meaningful careers. Individuals who may qualify for this opportunity may be income-challenged, employees who are receiving assistance through SNAP, TANF, or SSI social programs, a spouse who has substantial loss of income due to other spouse's decrease in income, individuals eligible for and receiving unemployment insurance. Members of the military who are within 48 months of discharge except for dishonorable discharge or spouses of active duty military may all qualify. We can provide the career support you need!
