

Category 1

Category 2

Category 3

Category 4

Category 5

10

10

10

10

10

20

20

20

20

20

30

30

30

30

30

40

40

40

40

40

50

50

50

50

50

Category 1 questions follow

Category 1 question for 10 points-
What is it called when bacteria multiplication is slowed

Category 1 answer for 10 points
Bacteriostatic

Category 1 question for 20 points
What is thrombocytopenia?

Category 1 answer for 20 points
Decrease in the number of platelets

Category 1 question for 30 points

The nurse is applying Silvadene cream to a burn patient and the patient complains of burning and stinging during treatment. What would you as the nurse state to your patient?

Category 1 answer for 30 points
This is normal

Category 1 question for 40 points

You have a diabetic patient with a new order to begin sulfonamide treatment. What will you as the nurse educate your patient on regarding their blood sugar levels while receiving a sulfonamide drug?

Category 1 answer for 40 points

Sulfonamides may disrupt the hepatic metabolism of the oral hypoglycemic drug and the parenteral drugs which enhance insulin production. We as the nurse will need to educate the patient that its possible to have a hypoglycemic reaction.

Category 1 question for 50 points

When teaching the client and family I as the nurse need to emphasize what to ensure that all microorganisms causing the infection are eradicated?

Category 1 answer for 50 points
Complete the prescribed course of therapy

Category 2 questions follow

Category 2 question for 10 points

To choose the appropriate drug, the PHCP needs to know if the bacteria will react to the drugs. This response is called what?

Category 2 answer for 10 points
SENSITIVITY

Category 2 question for 20 points

If A doctor orders a sulfonamide medication for your 1 yr old patient to treat his/her UTI what should you as the nurse question?

Category 2 answer for 20 points

I would question the order as sulfonamides are not to administered to patients under the age of 2yrs old.

Category 2 question for 30 points

If a patient states he/she has had a previous allergic reaction to PCN what would you as the nurse also suspect your patient to be allergic to?

Category 2 answer for 30 points
Cephalosporin

Category 2 question for 40 points

The PHCP orders your patient to receive IM PCN.
What will the nurse need to ask the patient to do after administering the IM injection?

Category 2 answer for 40 points

To wait in the lobby for at least 30 mins after the injection- most anaphylactic reactions occur within 30 mins after an injection

Category 2 question for 50 points

When the infection is not controlled by treatment what would we as the nurse be concerned with?

Category 2 answer for 50 points
Resistant bacteria are able to grow

Category 3 questions follow

Category 3 question for 10 points
What is is called when bacteria is destroyed?

Category 3 answer for 10 points
Bactericidal

Category 3 question for 20 points
What herbal remedy is commonly used for preventing or relieving symptoms of UTI's?

Category 3 answer for 20 points
Cranberries and Cranberry Juice

Category 3 question for 30 points

A PHCP may prescribe PCN prophylactically to treat against a potential secondary bacterial infection that can occur in patients with what kind of infection?

Category 3 answer for 30 points
Viral Infection

Category 3 question for 40 points

What is an indication that your patient may be experiencing pseudomembranous Colitis?

Category 3 answer for 40 points
Diarrhea

Category 3 question for 50 points

An Antabuse reaction may occur when taking what kind of medications?

Category 3 answer for 50 points
Cephalosporins

Category 4 questions follow

Category 4 question for 10 points

What topical cream is used in the treatment and prevention of secondary infections in second- and third- degree burns?

Category 4 answer for 10 points
SILVADENE CREAM (SILVER SULFADIAZINE)

Category 4 question for 20 points
What is Stomatitis?

Category 4 answer for 20 points
Inflammation of the mouth

Category 4 question for 30 points

How much H₂O should you as the nurse instruct your patient to receive while taking an oral sulfonamide medication?

Category 4 answer for 30 points
8 oz or a full glass while taking the medication and
2000ml's daily while on the medication

Category 4 question for 40 points

Vancomycin should be administer over how many minutes to prevent a sudden or profound fall in blood pressure and shock

Category 4 answer for 40 points

60 mins

Category 4 question for 50 points

You are a nurse in the Emergency department and you have a patient that was sexually assaulted.

What medication would you assume that the Dr. will order for your patient as a precaution to prevent any infections she may have received during the assault?

Category 4 answer for 50 points

CEPHALOSPORIN

Category 5 questions follow

Question

Category 5 question for 10 points
What is Crystalluria?

Category 5

10

Category 5 answer for 10 points
Crystals in the urine

Question

Category 5 question for 20 points

What is the most lethal reaction as a nurse I will need to monitor for with a patient taking a sulfonamide medication?

Category 5

20

Category 5 answer for 20 points
SJS- Stevens Johnson Syndrome

Category 5 question for 30 points

Why do you as the nurse encourage patients to increase their fluid intake while receiving a sulfonamide medication? What does the fluid increase help prevent?

Category 5 answer for 30 points
Crystalluria

Category 5 question for 40 points

You have a 19yr old sexually active patient who received a new order today for PCN to treat her UTI as the nurse what would you need to educate her on?

Category 5 answer for 40 points

Taking PCN can decrease the effectiveness of contraceptive agents, educate on taking secondary precautions while on PCN to prevent any unwanted pregnancies.

Category 5 question for 50 points

How many ML's do you as the nurse encourage your patients to receive daily while takin a sulfonamide medication?

Category 5 answer for 50 points
2000 mL's or more

